PREGIS' NAMED PACKAGING DISTRIBUTORS OF AMERICA'S VENDOR OF THE YEAR

Deerfield, Ill., June 23, 2009—Pregis Corp. was recently named Vendor of the Year by the Packaging Distributors of America (PDA), Alpharetta, GA.

“The company was selected Vendor of the Year because of its innovative products and outstanding service. Pregis’ total commitment to our members also stood out. From the president all the way through the rest of the organization, the company was dedicated to meeting or exceeding our members’ needs,” said George Strobel, president PDA.

PDA is an association of independent packaging distributors whose members are collectively responsible for approximately $1 billion in annual sales. The organization is comprised of strong local/regional distributors who have joined forces to create a national buying/servicing entity. The group currently has 15 members which represent approximately 50 full-service, stocking locations across the United States.

“We were thrilled to receive PDA’s Vendor of the Year award. At Pregis, we pride ourselves in living the word ‘partnership’ everyday. Our top priority is making sure that we help our partners and customers meet their objectives. We do so with best-of-class equipment and materials, coupled with customer service excellence,” said Sean Condon, vice president of sales, Protective Packaging North America, Pregis.

One of the ways Pregis supported the PDA member companies was by helping create national account opportunities via its leading-edge air cushioning systems and sustainable material options.
