

HOLIDAY PEAK SURCHARGES

2020-2021

Tis' the season for the busiest time in retail and e-commerce - as well as the carriers who ensure their deliveries. Every year, parcel carriers implement holiday surcharges to cover the increased demand on their networks, but for 2020, this is compounded by the delivery surge from COVID-19.

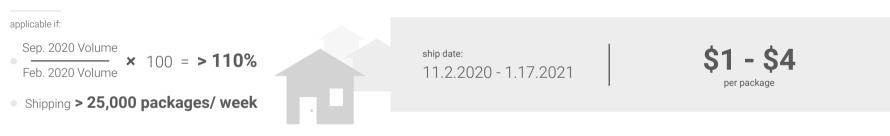

Package volume for FedEx and UPS have increased by 20% since Q2, but the United States Postal Service has been hit with a whopping 50% increase in demand. For the first time in history, they are applying their own Peak Season Parcel Surcharges to packages. Here's how this could impact your company:
